I made some revisions to the Subpart W one pager to get it to a one pager. (b) (5) - Deliberative process privilege
What do you think?

Here are my edits. Very little on part 190, and the most significant subpart W edit was to include a clear statement of what it is at the beginning. If we really need to get these down to one page each, some additional trimming will be necessary.

Using circular (elliptical?) reasoning, if its OK with all of us, then lets call it OK if Dan thinks its OK. Dan did note that in the title it has 40 CFR 250 instead of 61, so I think it would be useful for him to have the last look.
Ray, the format for this is different than the format used for the 190 one pager. Can you confirm we are OK with either format?
I have attached Reid's and Brian's files for Dan's benefit.

Tom/Ray,

If it's OK with you, it's OK with me.

Guys,

I have revised Reid's OMB one pager on Subpart W. See if you can live with it, or make appropriate changes.

Thanks.
